3	İngiliz Dili ve Edebiyatı English Language and Literature	İDE 5062	8	Travel Literature and Culture	Bahar Spring	Travel Literature, with its fluid nature, is an expanding field of study for humanities and social sciences especially since 1980s. Since the 1970s, under the growing influence of cultural studies, travelogues have been increasingly analysed for their projection of culture-specific mentalities, their representation of otherness, and the imaging of foreign countries, all as the phenomena of inter-culturality. Therefore, this course will discuss a selection of fictional and non-fictional texts which can all be subsumed under the broad category of travel literature. Focusing on narrative technique, structure, thematic, generic variants and characteristics, the course will consider the travel narratives from the early modern period onwards. Along with paying attention to elements of history and context, the course is text-oriented. After many 14 weeks (average) of surveying travel writing and criticism about travel (mostly postcolonial theories), you will be in the position to create your own travel text.	Assoc. Prof. Dr. Orkun Kocabıyık
