1 Uluslararası İlişkiler International Relations	ULS331	4	Regional Politics: The Middle East	Fall/5	The course aims to give the students a general understanding of what/where the Middle East is and of its various historical-political, socio-economic, cultural, ethnic and religious characteristics. It enables students to understand how certain Middle Eastern states were formed and analyze their emergence and development in historical context. In addition to investigating the internal dynamics of Middle Eastern states such as their political and economic structure, the course also analyzes the interaction of different Middle Eastern societies with each other and their impact on international politics. Thanks to the investigation of historical developments and the global political system, the course also helps the students to understand the current political situation in the Middle East. The course starts with a discussion of the region prior to World War I. We will analyze what the term "Middle East" means, its implications and connotations. Then we will continue with World War I, the collapse of the Ottoman Empire and the reshaping of the Middle East in its aftermath. Then we will move on to analyze the region during the interwar period and the Cold War years. Finally, we will focus on recent historical developments such as the Iranian Revolution, Iran-Iraq War, the Gulf Wars and the Arab Spring	Doç. Dr. Fulya ÖZKAN
2 Uluslararası İlişkiler International Relations	ULS360	4	Political History	Spring/6	This course aims to give the students a general overview of modern world history. The course will also provide students with a general discussion of political concepts such as imperialism, hegemony and balance of power. The course starts with a brief survey of the Middle Ages and Early Modern Period. Then we will focus on the "long" 19th century developments such as the American Revolution, French Revolution, 1830-1848 Revolutions and the Industrial Revolution. Towards the mid-semester, we will analyze the emergence of nation-states, colonialism and the causes and consequences of World War I. In the second half of the course, we will focus on the 20th century and cover topics like the rise of fascism in the interwar period and the Cold War in the aftermath of World War II. Finally, we will end the semester with a quick overview of the post-Cold War developments.	Doç. Dr. Fulya ÖZKAN
3 Uluslararası İlişkiler International Relations	ULS221	4	Histoire Politique I	Fall/3	Ce cours a pour objectif d'analyser des relations internationales de 1919 à 1945. En novembre 1918, la Grande Guerre prend fin. Vingt et un ans plus tard, l'Europe s'enflamme. L'incendie ne tarde pas à gagner le reste du monde. Comment expliquer l'échec des forces de paix ? Pourquoi les traités de l'après-Première Guerre mondiale n'ont-ils pas assuré la réconciliation entre les peuples ? Les États n'ont-ils pas su ou pas tenté de surmonter leurs tensions, leurs frictions et leurs revendications ? L'accession au pouvoir des dictateurs a-t-elle accéléré la marche à la guerre ? La Seconde Guerre mondiale est totale. Cette fois-ci, de nouveaux acteurs occupent le devant de la scène internationale, à commencer par les États-Unis de Franklin Roosevelt, la Grande-Bretagne de Winston Churchill et l'Union soviétique de Joseph Staline. Ont-ils mieux réussi l'après-guerre que leurs prédécesseurs ? La sécurité collective triomphe-t-elle enfin avec la création de l'Organisation des Nations unies ? La défaite de l'Italie fasciste, la capitulation de l'Allemagne nazie, l'écrasement du Japon annoncent-ils un monde pacifique ?	Doç. Dr. Ramazan İZOL

4	Uluslararası İlişkiler International Relations	ULS226	4	Histoire Politique II	Spring/4	Ce cours a pour objectif d'analyser des relations internationales de 1945 à nos jours: 1945-1962 : la Guerre froide, 1963-1985 : la détente et..., De 1985 à nos jours. Au lendemain de la Seconde Guerre mondiale, commence une guerre froide qui oppose les États-Unis et l'Union soviétique. Le monde est devenu bipolaire. Chacun des deux supergrands rassemble derrière lui des alliés et des clients. D'un côté, le camp socialiste : de l'autre, le monde libre. Bientôt apparaît une troisième force, qui tente de garder ses distances à l'égard des deux pôles principaux. Après la disparition de l'Union soviétique, tout change. Dans la dernière décennie du XX e siècle, la Russie, la Chine, l'Union européenne tiennent une place déterminante.	Doç. Dr. Ramazan İZOL
