INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS OFFICE

The International Relations Office (IRO) was established for the purpose of making the best contribution to the internationalization strategy of Akdeniz University, enabling the effective and sustainable implementation of our internationalization strategies in a way which takes into account the new conditions which have been introduced into the higher education system in the field of internationalization. The IRO is responsible for the Erasmus+ Programme, the Bologna Process, the Mevlana and Farabi Exchange Programmes, the Free Mover Programme and the IAESTE Programme, as well as international cooperation activities with universities abroad and the coordination of international students, and the international activities of the university.

STUDENT EXCHANGE OPPORTUNITIES AT AKDENİZ UNIVERSITY

Akdeniz University regards internationalization as one of its highest priorities, and as a result of this view places international students and exchange students at the centre of its internationalization strategy. If a student would like to study at Akdeniz University as an exchange student for one or two semesters, Akdeniz University provides a wide range of options.

If a student wants to apply to study as part of the Erasmus+ Programme or the Mevlana Exchange Programme, or to take part in a student exchange under the terms of Akdeniz University's cooperation protocols, then there needs to be an Erasmus+ bilateral agreement, a Mevlana Exchange Programme protocol or a cooperation protocol between student's home university and Akdeniz University. If there is no bilateral agreement in place between student's home university and Akdeniz University, student can also apply to the Free Mover Programme, for which no bilateral agreement is needed.

ERASMUS+ PROGRAMME

Akdeniz University, which was among one of the 15 Turkish universities, participated the Erasmus Programme as a pilot university in 2003. Akdeniz University progressed to the point where its work was recognised by the European Commission and awarded the Erasmus Bronze Award – Creativity and Innovation in 2009. It was the first time that a Turkish university had been recognised with an award of this kind.

Akdeniz University has an Erasmus Charter for Higher Education (ECHE) 2014-2020, and has an active role in the Erasmus + Programme, sending and hosting students and staff to Erasmus+ programme countries. Akdeniz University has established 254 Erasmus+ agreements with 28 programme countries.
